

Monthly Good News from Beormund

☺ November-December 2015 ☺

Respect Class

- George: For making a fabulous poster that included persuasive writing.
- Ashley: For persevering with his Maths work.
- Wesley: For putting in a lot of effort in basics and completing them all.

The Helpers

- Touss: For excellent work on addition and subtraction on number lines and having great focus.
- Harley: For putting a lot of effort into his story during therapeutic story writing.

Resilience Class

- Binyaameen: For great improvement with his reading and being extremely helpful.
- Louie: For putting in maximum effort and working hard in class.
- Jimmy: For applying extra effort in trying to reach his class targets.

Honesty Class

- Josh: For improved behaviour and outstanding class work.
- Cameron: For amazing Literacy work.
- Liam T: For reading a story to the class, excellent contribution during lessons and producing a great story during therapeutic story writing.

Thoughtfulness Class

- Deshaun: For having a positive attitude and being helpful.
- Jake: For managing himself better and being able to turn things around much quicker.
- Davarnie: For great focus during Numeracy and trying his best.