

Good News from Beormund

September-October 2015

Respect Class

George: For making creative book covers.

Amari: For settling to work quickly in the mornings and completing his basics.

Archie: For fantastic story writing.

Wesley: For improvement in his work presentation.

George: For improving his reading.

The Helpers Class

Emmanuel: For trying his best to write captions independently.

Simon: For trying his best to make his story longer.

Touss: For maximum effort when adding and taking away.

Emmanuel: For trying his best at writing.

Resilience

Binyaameen: For making a great effort to follow school rules and instructions.

Charlie: For being focussed in school and trying his best.

Binyaameen: For accepting support.

Honesty Class

Cameron: For being a good role model in class and setting good examples.

Denzel: For using connectives to join sentences together.

Cameron: For great work on grammar in Literacy.

Josh: For amazing work in Maths.

Denzel: For maintaining excellent behaviour and work all week.

STOP THE PRESS:

Mr McCabe will be our new Headteacher for the day on Friday 13th November

Thoughtfulness Class

Israel: For great literacy and numeracy work.

Nyran: For being focussed in class and working well in all subjects.

Deshaun: For working hard in class.

Jake: For hard work and determination in Phonics.

Quddus: For having an excellent session at horse riding.

Abdullah: For a sensational non-chronological report.

We hope you all have a lovely half-term break. See you on Monday 2nd November.